KiKi®

A painting depicting a figure in a dark blue military-style uniform standing in a field of yellow flowers. The figure is positioned centrally, facing forward. The background is filled with rows of yellow flowers, possibly sunflowers, extending into the distance. The overall composition has a somber and historical feel. At the bottom of the painting, the word "BATTERY" is partially visible in large, bold letters.
