

Player FAQ

1. Where can I find the player handbook?

You can find the Call of Duty World League player handbook here.

2. What should I bring to the event?

You will only need to bring a headset and controller to the event to participate. It is recommended you bring backups.

3. How many pro points do I have?

You can check your pro points here.

4. What's my seeding?

Your seeding will be based on pro points.

5. Can I bring a backpack into the venue?

Large backpacks over 16" x 5" x 18" will not be permitted.

6. Do I need to bring my ticket?

Yes, you will need to present your ticket in order to redeem your 5 passes for the event.

7. How can I check my roster?

Your roster will be submitted by the individual who purchased the team pass.

8. How can I make a roster change?

The person who purchased the team pass is automatically assigned the role of owner and captain. The purchaser has the ability to assign the captain role to another person in the organization/team. The captain then has the sole ability to add and remove players/coach. After the purchaser has assigned the captain role, if they want to change the recipient of the captain role, they will need to contact CWLBirmingham@Multiplayevents.com and we can change the person assigned to that role.

Restrictions may apply. Carefully review each events rules for roster change restrictions.

9. Who do contact for questions regarding my team pass?

Please contact CWLBirmingham@Multiplayevents.com for questions and concerns about team passes

10. Where do I go once I arrive at the venue?

Once you arrive at the venue your full team roster needs to check in at the registration desk.

11. What should I wear?

Team jerseys are not required, but all players must wear appropriate team attire. See Section 9.6.2.1 of the Handbook for more information.

12. Can I bring food and drinks?

Alcohol, prepared food, and glass bottles are not permitted.

13. When is the bracket released?

The bracket will be public 24 hours before matches start
